

These are some interesting items extracted from "Broyles Family History by Kenneth broyles"

I. John Breil (Breils, Broyles, Broyle, Broil, Broiles, Breul, Etc.) was born in Germany about 1680-85, married Ursula or Ursuley, last name unknown. They came to America in 1717, landing in Virginia. John died in Virginia in 1734. Their children were:

- i. Jacob Broyles, b. ca 1705 in Germany.
- ii. Conrad Broyles, b. in Germany, md. Margaret ? , d. 1784.
- iii. John Broyles.
- iv. Elizabeth Broyles.
- v. Catherine Broyles, md. Adam Wilhite, 1740, 5 children.

II. Jacob Broyles (1st child of John and Ursula Breil) was born in Germany about 1705 and was brought to Virginia in 1717, he died in 1763, was married to Mary Catharine Fleishman. Their children were:

- i. Adam Broyles, b. ca 1728, Va., d. 1782, Tenn.
- ii. Nicholas Broyles, b. ca 1730, Va.
- iii. Cyrus Broyles, b. 1732, d. 1826, md. Mary Wilhite.
- iv. Jacob Broyles, md. Elizabeth Yowell, 1762.
- v. Peter Broyles, md. ca 1767, Elizabeth Blankenbaker.
- vi. Michael Broyles, b. June 1740, d. 1839-40, md. 1764, Elizabeth Klug.

- x. Catherine Broyles, md. John Wayland 1750, she died 1831, 11 children
- xi. Elizabeth Broyles, md. ca 1750, Conrad Wilhite, 9 children.

III. Michael Broyles (6th child of Jacob Broyles and Mary Catharine Fleishman) was born June 1740, according to his statement in his application for pension made 8, Nov. 1833. His name appears in 1836 on a list of those receiving pension for services in the Revolution from Jonesboro, Washington Co., Tenn. From a record given below he was still living in 1839 or the first part of 1840. This agrees with tradition in his family. He almost or quite reached the century mark. He was the last to survive of the children of Jacob Broyles, with the possible exception of some of his daughters. Michael Broyles married probably about 1764 to Elizabeth Klug, daughter of the Rev. George Samuel Klug. He received by the terms of his father's will "one hundred acres of land, a Beast, a Cow and Calf and a Bed and a pot and pan". On 16, June 1776 Michael Broyles and wife Elizabeth sold to John Deer, Jr., 116 acres. He entered 400 acres in 1780 on the Licking in Jefferson Co., Ky., which claim is not heard of later. He and his wife appear on the communion rolls of Hebron Church in 1775-77. Only one of his children appears in the Birth Register, namely, Michael Breil, born 19, Jan. 1777, baptized 13, Apr. 1777 with Conrad Wilheit and wife, Moses Breil and Elizabeth Breilin as sponsors. The following record is found in Madison C. H., Va: On 10, June 1801, Michael Broyles and wife Elizabeth, Matthias Broyles and wife Eve, now all of Greene Co., Tenn., said Elizabeth and Eve Klug (sic) being heirs of Susanna Medley formerly Susanna Klug, now dec'd, appoint William Lotspeck of Stafford Co., Va. as attorney. Signed by Michael Broyles. his mark, Matthias Broyles, his mark, and witnessed by Thomas Prather and William Prather, his mark. Susanna Medley was the mother of Elizabeth Klug Broyles and Eve Klug Broyles, and ~~the~~ formerly the wife of the Rev. George Samuel Klug. She seems to have outlived her first husband by many years, Aside from the two daughters who married Broyleses they had a daughter who married Godfrey Yager and another daughter who married William Lotspeck, probably the William Lotspeck of the above record. The Rev. George Samuel Klug is said to have had but one son, who seems to have died without issue. The name Klug is not found in later Madison County records. His only descendants come from the four daughters mentioned above.
